

J S Bach:

Weinen, Klagen Sorgen, Zagen

Weeping, wailing, sorrowing, fearing (Cantata 12)

In today's gospel, Jesus calls men to follow him – but he makes it clear that doing so will have a cost: to achieve the ultimate joy of a heavenly reward, some degree of suffering is necessary. But for a faithful Christian, the future is bright; ever-present is Christ's promise that any sorrow shall be turned into joy. Bach's music illustrates both the suffering and the joy in this message.
